

Independence Hall Quilters 2021 Guild Challenge

“Holidays and Seasons”

Celebrate your favorite holiday or favorite season of the year. It's time to have some fun!
Let your imagination go wild!

Entry Rules

1. All entries shall be no larger than 24"W x 36"L.
2. Entry construction - 80% of the quilt should be standard 3-layer fabric construction.
3. Please provide a short description of how your quilt is a celebration of your favorite holiday or season. The story behind your creation is always a welcome addition.
4. Challenge entries must be fabricated by you. Feel free to use any patterns you require to create your quilt. If using a pattern, please remember to acknowledge the designer.
5. We would like your entries to remain anonymous therefore, we ask you to not present your work as part of guild “show and tell” or post on social media for viewing prior to the submission date.

Submission Requirements

1. All challenge entries will use the same application as non-challenge show quilts. This can be downloaded from the IHQ website.
2. We will have a viewing of all entries for voting on anonymously by guild members. Voting will be held on Monday September 27, 2021.
3. The winner will be presented the “Guild Choice Award”. The winner of this award will be acknowledged opening day of the faire.
